DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY ~ In a series of revelations, Jesus taught St. Faustina that His Mercy is unlimited and available even to the greatest sinners. The Sunday after Easter has been officially established in the Church as the Feast of Mercy: "On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy." (Diary, 699.) Our Lord's promise of complete forgiveness is both a reminder and a call. Reminding us He is truly present and truly alive in the Eucharist and a call for us all to be washed clean in His love through confession and Holy Communion.

"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'"

John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, a new neighbour, a new work colleague, a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? Many of us can probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. A simple "hello" and a smile goes a long way.
