TALK TO A FRIEND

Talk to a friend is a Jesuit network of listeners for those suffering because of COVID-19.

If the lockdown becomes burdensome, too heavy, scary or worrisome for you; If you're a caregiver who wants to be listened to; If you're grieving for a loved one; If you have COVID-19; you can email talktoafriend@jesuits.org 7 days a week. A free and confidential service. There are many issues you may want to talk about: What should I do? What dangers do I face? Who can I talk to about what is happening? Or I just feel like talking... A "network of listeners" has been formed. These people are priests, deacons, religious and lay people who are already experienced in listening to people with life difficulties. Email us and one of them will reach out to you and set up some time to talk, to offer comfort and solace. Please share this with those who might need it.

The Catholic Family Conference - Inspire- Strengthen- Enlighten- Join us May 1-2 for vibrant digital Catholic Conference with amazing speakers, inspiring talks, powerful tools and incredible resources that will inspire, enlighten and fortify your family life. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament - Thinking of how to do first Friday and this my idea. I will present Jesus in the monstrance on Wednesday and Friday from 7pm to 9pm. This is to keep with honouring our front line workers and so that we can have time in the real presence of Jesus. What you do is drive to parking lot at St. Ambrose (between the office and the school) and park facing Jesus in the monstrance and pray. Kind of like a tailgate party with the Lord. My prayers are always with you and may you always know that Our Lord is here to guide you in this time of pandemic. Prayers and blessings, yours in Christ Fr. Ian
