Watch Livestream Mass - If you cannot attend the Liturgy in person, Bishop McGrattan suggests you choose to watch a live-streamed celebration rather than a recorded one whenever possible. Live-streamed liturgies unfold in the present moment, and thus afford the opportunity for those participating virtually to join in real time with the Church at prayer. Scripture Reflection

About the News Story. Here is the gospel declaration, the Good News for today. Who? Father, Son, and Spirit – aka (1) the Trinity and (2) God. What? The love of God has already been poured into us. When? Before creation and throughout our salvation down to today. Why? Because we stand in God's good grace by God's loving design. How? Ah, that is mystery!

What peace does the Father bring this day?

What does Jesus have to tell me about affliction, endurance, character, hope, and love (see the Romans reading)?

How will I let the Spirit guide me?

As we move back into ordinary time

With the conclusion of the Feast of Pentecost, the Church moves from the Easter season back into Ordinary Time. Is Ordinary Time just ordinary though?

The celebration of the Liturgical Year has a special sacramental power and force which nourishes and strengthens the life of Christians. The Church year is not merely a recalling of the historical events by which Christ won our salvation. The reason for the restoration of the Liturgical Year is to help believers through their faith, hope and love to share more fully in the entire mystery of Christ as it is unfolding throughout the year. (ORDO 2022)

The Church year is a continual cycle, beginning with the First Sunday of Advent and ending with the Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Each of the special Feasts and Seasons has a Liturgical color associated with it. This is reflected by the color of the priest's vestments, the altar cloths, and even the banners. As we move from the Easter Season, represented by the color white, to Ordinary Time, represented by green, you will notice the change in colors in the church. Some Sundays may use different colors depending on special feast days, but, overall, we now remain in Ordinary Time until Advent begins again at the end of November.
