Stewardship Reflection

"...Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet." – ACTS 13:25

Stewardship is a lifestyle, it's not a program or a process. It's how we are called to live our lives twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week! It challenges us to live "God-centered" lives, not "self-centered" lives. Reflect on your daily activities, do you do them for the glory of God or for the glory of your own name?

CATHOLIC MYTHS DISPELLED

Pope Joan

Myth: Pope Joan concealed her gender and served as pope for almost three years in the 850s, but the Church erased all records to hide the fact.

Reality: If you put the legendary Pope Joan's name into a Google search, you will find all sorts of interesting theories, but the fact remains that this story is just a fairy tale. Rumors about Pope Joan began to surface in the mid-13th century. Experts say the story started with a Roman folk tale, which was embellished over time.

Today Pope Joan is almost universally regarded as fictitious — except by those who have something to gain by promoting a make-believe female pope. Accounts of the Pope Joan story differ in detail, with some claiming she served in the 850s, succeeding Pope Leo IV, and others claiming she succeeded Pope Victor III, who died in 1087. Quite a swing in dates. If you look at the popes and the years and the claims, they just don't fit. There's no room for a Pope Joan in the time line.
