DONATIONS - The next few weeks will be tough for our parish, as we rely on your generous donations. To continue your financial support, donations will be accepted by mail to the parish offices at 1513 23 Ave. Coaldale, AB T1M 1E2 or on the Diocesan website. <https://www.catholicyc.ca/donatotoparish.html>. Thank you, and God's blessings, your support through these times is very much appreciated.

If you are shut in and need help or supplies during our current health emergency, please contact Gord Elliott, at his email, lauragordelliott@gmail.com, as the St. Ambrose Knights of Columbus are coordinating people to assist those in our parish community who are currently in need.

✙ St. Ambrose Church This Week ✙

The PRAYER CHAIN is broken! A computer problem has caused a loss of important LINKS (members). If you were a member of the chain before last fall, and wish to continue, please advise the church office (403-345-3400) or Gerhard Hartman (403-345-4027). We have a small list of folks who registered in the stewardship procedure last fall. The new and the old will be integrated into a new and vibrant chain.

Where is your Lenten journey taking you??? Are you being called to deepen your faith and commitment to Christ? Then maybe you want to spend some time in prayer and meditation or even a rosary each morning. And what better place to do this than in God's house? St. Ambrose church will be open for one hour every morning at 7 am.

~"SANCTUARY: The Search for a Home" Six-day Silent Guided Retreat Saturday, May 23, 7:30 pm to Saturday, May 30, 10:00 am This retreat looks at the desires for a place of belonging and community that is rooted in what it means to be human. Its aim is very simple. It is to raise the question, who am I? Who am I is a question of recognition. Such recognition comes from others, from cultures and traditions one lives in, and from the God one has as the source of one's life. In the journey of discovering and living out one's humanity we discover who we are through relationships. Using film, times for private prayer and small group sharing, with one presentation and a daily Eucharist, the retreat opens the space to allow one to continue the journey home. Facilitator: Monty Williams, SJ Cost: $700 (accommodation/meals included).
