Stewardship Reflection

"And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand." - MARK 3:25

Do your parish ministries complement each other or do they compete against each other? Is your parish "one Body of Christ" or a bunch of little, separate ministries controlled by human ego? The goal of all parish ministries is to bring people to Christ. All of our parish work should be for the glory of God's name, not our own name.

CATHOLIC MYTHS DISPELLED

Piles of gold

Myth: The Roman Catholic Church is the richest organization in the world and should sell off its treasures to feed the poor.

Reality: Despite what you hear and read, there are no piles of gold littering the Vatican. Yes, there are artistic, historic and cultural treasures at the Vatican and scattered throughout the universal Church. However, the Church views itself as the preserver of those treasures, not as an owner who can trade or sell its valuable wares. If the treasures were sold off to feed the poor or serve the needy in some other way, they would fall into the hands of private owners, who would not necessarily make them available to the public or preserve them for future generations. And the poor would still need to be fed. The Church is the dutiful caretaker of its treasures, not an auctioneer waiting for the highest bidder.

"Growth begins when we start to accept our own weakness."

Jean Vanier
